

DECATHLON is an international chain of sport stores, belonging to the Decathlon Group, French privately owned company, with its head office in Lille, France.

Our first store opened in 1976 in Lille, North of France. With more than 1.300 stores in 28 countries and 5 continents, Decathlon is the leading sport retailer in Europe and the largest in the world.

We believe in the sporty-individual and their willingness to take responsibility and develop. Therefore we are looking for someone who has a desire to make a career within the company and that through hard work and a passionate commitment to contribute to new successes. To ensure the continued future growth, we are seeking new colleagues.

What are we looking for? → Sport Leaders

Join our team in Barkarby as a sport leader and you'll be running your own business from the start:

- Planning your commercial activity according to Decathlon Concept
- Managing your stock to ensure you run a profitable business.
- Become, linked to your competences, behaviours and results, one of our future Store Leaders.

It's not a nine-to-five desk job, so you'll need plenty of energy and a desire to work hands-on on the shop-floor, in a customer-facing environment (even weekends, nights, red-days...when the business requires).

In return, you will get training and coaching in all the tasks that are relevant for the store activity, real responsibility, the opportunity to work with the sport you love, and a real opportunity to grow in the company (local and international).

It is a great time to join us, we want today's sport leaders to be tomorrow's Store Leaders and beyond.

Your qualities and background:

You are a happy, smiling and energetic person and share our values (Vital and Responsible)

You are passionate in one or more sports and you practice it regularly (our biggest sports are Biking, Hiking, Ski, Fitness and Running).

Customer service oriented and team spirit are your key strengths

You are flexible and open to changes

You want an active role where you'll be making decisions every day

Swedish and English essential

You have a multicultural and international life experience

A previous experience within retail/sales is needed

Again, we offer you a great career opportunity where you will receive training and coaching within a great international work atmosphere.

We, at Decathlon, value diversity within the company, and therefore welcome all applicants, regardless of gender, age or ethnic background.

We look forward to receive your applications!
